

Business Litigation/Transactional

Focused And Knowledgeable Representation In Business Matters

Kaufman Dolowich attorneys have extensive experience in all aspects of business matters, including transactions and litigation. We encourage discussion among litigators and transactional attorneys to ensure that our litigators consider the business consequences of your lawsuit and that our transactional attorneys protect you against potential litigation. We carefully pay attention to your goals and develop an early case assessment to ensure that your goals are achievable. We take pride in the cost-effective representation we provide, which includes explaining the risks and benefits of litigation so we can help you make the best decision.

Who We Represent

Our clients range from individuals to business entities, large and small. We represent clients from all types of industries from retailers and manufacturers to entertainment clients, developers, and financial institutions. Our clients range in size from sole proprietors to Fortune 500 companies.

We efficiently and aggressively represent clients through every step of the process. We will consider all possibilities to find a creative solution to meet your needs and your budget.
