

2011 Annual PLUS International Conference

KD is sponsoring the 24th Annual PLUS International Conference. This year's theme, Your Global Neighborhood: Explore ? Connect ? Evolve, explores how world events are rapidly changing the global marketplace; investigates the connections between the global marketplace and the professional liability industry; and looks at how the professional liability industry will continue to evolve to meet these changes.

The program for this year's event is extraordinary. Keynote speakers for the event include Tony Blair, the former Prime Minister of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, best-selling author Daniel Pink, and President and Economist at the Insurance Information Institute, Dr. Robert Hartwig.
