

Ivan Dolowich, Kaufman Dolowich Co-Managing Partner, Elected to the Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center's Board of Directors

(October 27, 2021, Woodbury, New York) – Ivan Dolowich, co-managing partner of Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck LLP (KD) has been elected to the Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center of Nassau County's (HMTC) Board of Directors. Dolowich joins KD partner Keith Gutstein on the Board. In August, Dolowich was honored at the HMTC 12th annual golf outing at the Meadow Brook Club in Jericho.

"This organization does amazing and critical work in its mission to teach about the dangers of antisemitism, bullying, racism, and all aspects of intolerance," said Dolowich. "I have been involved with HMTC for several years and look forward to working with my close friend and colleague Keith and the other board members to help the Center address the continuing antisemitism and racism that unfortunately exists."

"The HMTC is extremely fortunate to have Ivan join our Board," said Gutstein. "His commitment to the fight against antisemitism is immeasurable and I am thrilled to be on the Board with my friend, partner and fellow fighter against antisemitism."

Dolowich will have a two-year term on the HMTC Board. He is active in many Jewish organizations including HMTC, American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) and Temple Or Elohim in Jericho.

"I am thrilled to welcome Ivan to the Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center's board. As our 2021 golf outing honoree, Ivan has demonstrated philanthropic leadership and a strong commitment to Holocaust and tolerance education. I am so excited for Ivan to be part of our wonderful team as we work together to build a better world," said Andrea Bolender, Chair of the Board, Acting Executive Director, HMTC.

The next major HMTC event will be: The Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center Presents Hymns from Auschwitz, "A Tribute to Victor Ullman and Michel Assael", in honor of International Holocaust Remembrance Day, to be performed at Carnegie Hall Jan. 26. This score will be performed for the first time ever.
