Web Accessibility: A New ADA Exposure?

A Live PLAN Webinar

Tuesday, July 25th, 2017

12:00 Noon Central/1:00 PM Eastern

Philip R. Voluck, managing partner of the firm's PA Offices and Co-Chair of KD's Employment Group, and Jennifer E. Sherven, partner from KD's Long Island office, will be presenting a PLAN sponsored live webinar "Web Accessibility: A New ADA Exposure?"

Under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), no individual may be discriminated against on the basis of disability with regards to the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities or accommodations at any place of public accommodation. Title III typically has been interpreted to apply to such brick-and-mortar places as restaurants, hotels, stores, schools and commercial facilities. However, the Internet and digital world have grown exponentially since the ADA was enacted in 1990, leading federal agencies, courts and lawyers to struggle with whether the virtual world of websites qualify as "place[s] of public accommodation."
