

Kaufman Dolowich Expands Its Footprint Into Delaware: Loren Barron Joins as Office Managing Partner, 1-23-2024

(Jan. 23, 2024, Wilmington, Del.) — Kaufman Dolowich, a leading national law firm, today announced the opening of its Wilmington, Del., office and the addition of professional liability attorney Loren Barron, who will serve as the Wilmington office managing partner. The new location is a vital component to the firm’s continued strategic expansion, to serve new and existing clients across a variety of industries in a market so critical to conducting business in the U.S.

The new Kaufman Dolowich office is located at 222 Delaware Avenue in Wilmington.

“Delaware has been on our radar for a long time, as a central business hub for clients nationwide, and a key location within the Mid-Atlantic area,” said Ivan Dolowich, Kaufman Dolowich co-managing partner. “We’re glad to have Loren at the helm of this important expansion; she’s sure to be an asset to current and prospective clients.”

A native of Delaware, Barron’s statewide reputation precedes her; named a “Top Lawyer” in Legal Malpractice in Delaware Today for the past six years and an executive committee member of the Delaware State Bar Association, she is a highly regarded local attorney. Barron is well known for her professional liability defense work and continues to expand her directors & officers liability and errors and omissions defense work. She also has a great deal of experience handling insurance coverage disputes, employment law, commercial litigation, bad faith litigation, general liability and medical malpractice matters.

“Loren is perfectly suited to take the helm of our Delaware office; she is top-rated in her field and her leadership style is a natural fit for our firm’s culture,” said Philadelphia office Co-Managing Partner Greg Hyman. “Having run in professional circles with Loren for a long time, I know she is well respected, and collaborating with her on matters will be a win for our clients.”

“I have great respect for Kaufman Dolowich and its team,” Barron said. “When the opportunity to help the firm expand into my home turf was presented, I couldn’t pass it up. My clients will absolutely benefit from the breadth of services and the national platform. I am thrilled to be here and look forward to helping the firm establish its presence in Delaware.”

Barron received her J.D. from Stetson University College of Law in Gulfport, Fla., and her B.A. in English Literature, magna cum laude, from the University of Delaware. She is a member of the Delaware Bar Association, the Fellows of the American Bar Foundation, and is a past recipient of the Mary C. Boudart Award for professional excellence for contributions to the Women and the Law Section of the Delaware State Bar Association.
