

Kaufman Dolowich Adds Real Estate Partner Jaimie Bombard in San Francisco, News Release, March 30, 2022

San Francisco (March 30, 2022) — Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck, LLP (KD), a leading national law firm, today announced that Jaimie Bombard has joined the Firm's San Francisco office as a partner in the Real Estate group.

With a focus in real estate litigation, Bombard has maintained her practice in the San Francisco Bay area for nearly a decade, and specializes in commercial and residential landlord-tenant disputes. She also counsels clients and develops case strategy for all aspects of unlawful detainer litigation, and regularly represents clients in matters arising before the San Francisco Rent Board. She handles property management, tenant buyouts, Ellis Act withdrawals, family evictions, and other just-cause based actions for removal in eviction-controlled California jurisdictions, and has also tried several cases in San Francisco Superior Court.

"Jaimie is truly a powerhouse in her market niche in the San Francisco area," said Ashley Klein, co-managing partner of KD's San Francisco office. "Our clients will greatly benefit from her experience and she is a welcome addition as we continue to grow in California and expand our local and national real estate footprint."

Bombard most recently practiced at San Francisco-based firm Cooper, White & Cooper LLP, and prior to that, with San Francisco real estate boutique firm Steven Adair MacDonald & Partners, P.C.

"I've known Ashley for quite some time, and have watched KD evolve into a national law firm," said Bombard on joining the firm, "The firm has continued its steady upward climb of growth and influence and I have a great deal of respect for its leadership and culture. I'm excited to join this great team."

Bombard received her J.D., with distinction, from Golden Gate University School of Law in San Francisco. She received her B.A. from Emerson College in Boston. She was named a Northern California "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers, 2017-2020.
