

4th Annual Claim Executive of the Year (CEY) Awards Banquet

This year celebrates the 4th Annual Claim Executive of the Year (CEY) Awards Banquet. The event was founded by co-chairmen Ivan Dolowich, Managing Partner of Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck, and Chris Cavallaro, ARC Excess & Surplus. The award recognizes leadership, character and technical expertise among claims professionals in the insurance business. Recipients are chosen based on their years of service and contribution to the insurance industry, and the professional example they set for their peers and colleagues.

This year's honoree is Paul Lavelle, Founder & President of LVL Claims Services, LLC. In addition to running his organization for over 10 years, Mr. Lavelle has held executive management positions at several corporations and served as a Trustee on the Board of PLUS.

The event will be held at New York City's Edison Ballroom on Wednesday, September 13, 2017. Guests will dine on gourmet food in an atmosphere inspired by 1930s elegance. Additionally, a charity named by the honoree will be the recipient of the night's proceeds. Mr. Lavelle has chosen as his charity The Semper Fi Fund. This foundation provides financial assistance and lifetime support to post-9/11 wounded members of all branches of the U.S. Armed Forces, and their families.
