

KD Press Release: Partner Sarah Goldstein to Speak at 4th Annual ABA International & Israel Bar Association Joint Conference

(May 16, 2013, Eilat, Israel) — Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck, LLP (KD), a leading national law firm, today announced that Sarah K. Goldstein, a partner and Director of the Employment Practices Group in the Los Angeles office, will be a speaker at the 4th Annual ABA International & Israel Bar Association Joint Conference being held May 26-28 in Eilat, Israel.

Ms. Goldstein, whose practice focuses on employment litigation as well as advising companies on proactive compliance with employment laws, will be speaking about employment law to lawyers from Israel and around the world as part of the conference's "Hot Topics in International Commercial Insurance" session on May 28 at 5:45-7:15 pm at the Dan Eilat Hotel.

"I'm very excited to address an international audience about American employment law," said Goldstein. "I will be discussing what potential US employers will need to know about the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title IIV and the protected categories, age and disability discrimination, the Equal Pay Act, Employment Practices Liability Insurance and best practices for hiring, firing, investigations and dealing with social media. It is fantastic to have this opportunity to provide information proactively to an international audience of this caliber. Compliance with employment laws is a very important part of doing business globally."
