

LSAC Bay Area Forum

A panel of attorneys representing a diverse cross-section of practice areas inform participants about the profession. Panelists describe their career paths and offer details on the skills needed to represent clients effectively. This panel is especially helpful to participants who do not know practicing lawyers.