

New York-based Kaufman Dolowich adds New Orleans office, New Orleans City Business, April 13, 2022

New York-headquartered law firm Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck has opened an office in New Orleans. Joining the firm is The Myers Law Group, headed by Angella Myers, who will be managing partner of the New Orleans office as well as the firm's new office in Dallas.

Co-managing partner in the New Orleans office is Michael Kaufman, a news release said. Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck has over 200 attorneys in 17 offices across the U.S. The firm specializes in labor and employment law, wage and hour class actions, insurance defense and general commercial litigation and business law.