

"Recent Developments and Hot Topics in Securities Litigation." Moderator, Co-Chair of Securities Litigation Subcommittee (Panelists – Robert W. Pommer III, Kirkland & Ellis LLP; Ronald G. White, Morrison & Foerster LLP; S. Douglas Bunch, Cohen Milstein PLLC) – November 10, 2020

On Tuesday, November 10, at 1 pm ET, Stephen Brodsky, NYC and LI Partner, will moderate a video roundtable for the American Bar Association on "Recent Developments and Hot Topics in Securities Litigation." Stephen and the panelists will discuss recent decisions by the Supreme Court and other federal courts across the nation. Topics include: Disgorgement after SEC, how much is enough? Is the insider trading "personal benefit" rule dead?; and Where we are now, extraterritoriality since the time of Morrison. The panelists, Bob Pommer of Kirkland & Ellis LLP, Ron White of Morrison & Foerster LLP, and Doug Bunch of Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC, are nationally known in their fields. Anyone who litigates securities matters or is interested in them should tune in.

Register here