

Scott Miller Attending Construction Risk Conference

The IRMI Construction Risk Conference (CRC) brings nearly 2,000 leading project owners, general contractors, subcontractors, developers, insurers, and insurance agents and brokers together to explore and share state-of-the-art ideas and techniques for improving insurance coverages, controlling insurance costs, and fine-tuning risk management programs. Scott Miller, Partner & Chairperson of KD's Construction Accident Practice Group, is attending this year's conference taking place November 5-8, 2017 in Indianapolis, IN. Participants will learn from experts in the field during the highly interactive sessions. KD construction attorneys need remain up-to-date on the laws and how any changes impact our clients' businesses and projects. The Conference also features tremendous networking opportunities to make new connections and strengthen existing relationships.
