

Sandals Montego Bay
Resort
Montego Bay, Jamaica

Hospitality Industry and Casino Operator's Guide to Managing U.S. Liability Issues from the Caribbean

Chair:
Clayton Morgan

The Law Firm of Kaufman Dolowich Voluck in association with the Law Firm of Clayton Morgan and Company are pleased to invite you to this business seminar:

Event Information

5:00 pm

Registration

5:30 pm

Welcome and Introductions

His Worship The Mayor,
Councilor Homer Davis C.D.

6:00 pm

Keynote Speaker Address by

The Hon. Edmund Bartlett,
C.D., M.P.

6:30 pm

Caribbean Casino Operations and Liability Issues

7:00 pm

Hospitality Industry
Liability

8:00 pm

Questions

8:30 pm

Closing Remarks

Save The Date: Friday, December 7, 2018

Presented by Bruce Liebman, Esq. and Michel Morgan, Esq. from the Florida office of Kaufman Dolowich Voluck.

Topics to be covered include the following:

- Is your hotel or casino business prepared to handle liability arising out of catering to U.S residents?
- Should your hotel or casino business be preemptive or responsive to U.S. liability issues?

Please RSVP by November 30, 2018.

Click here.

Bruce Liebman is a managing partner in the Florida office of Kaufman Dolowich Voluck. He is vastly experienced on the representation of international and domestic hospitality companies and casinos in the area of liability, collections and gaming issues. Bruce has over 20 reported cases on jurisdictional, venue selection and forum non conveniens issues from Federal Courts across the nation.

Michel Morgan is an associate attorney in the Florida office of Kaufman Dolowich Voluck. She has extensive experience in strategically defending foreign and domestic corporations against exposure for multi-million dollar judgments arising out of commercial general liability losses in the United States Federal Courts. Ms. Morgan worked in the Jamaican Travel and Tourism Industry before migrating to the United States to practice law.

Further Information

Dress code business casual.

There is no cost to attend this seminar but prior registration is required as space is limited.